Claims Two Witnesses

Race Withdrawal Offer to Knight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight says a wealthy Republican friend of Richard M. Nixon's offered him "any job in the state of California" if he withdrew from the 1962 gubernatorial race.

Knight said Thursday the unidentified emissary told him he could become California's "chief justice or anything else you want, if you won't run against Dick."

Nixon denied a virtually identical charge—by State Democratic Chairman William A. Munnell—at his Wednesday night news conference, when Nixon announced his candidacy for governor. The former vice president was unavailable Thursday night for comment on Knight's accusation, but Robert Finch, campaign manager in Nixon's unsuccessful 1960 bid for the presidency, said of the report: "That's totally preposterous. There's never been any discussion of any such thing."

Then Knight reaffirmed his accusation, claiming he had two witnesses to the alleged conversation with the go-between. He added: "At the proper time, if this story is denied again, I'll make their names public."

Join In Plan To Appoint UN Official

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Western and neutral diplomats joined today in efforts to appoint a temporary secretary-general after latest U.S.-Soviet negotiations on the issue broke down.

U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet delegate Valerian A. Zorin met twice Thursday. The United States was said to have turned down the latest Soviet plan for a four-man executive to run the United Nations.

Zorin said that the four would have to agree on any decision, but added that they would work as a team with a rotating chairman. This, he claimed, would eliminate the idea of a veto which had been the main sticking point in the Soviet Union's old troika plan.

The United States was said to have turned down this proposal on grounds that the veto still would be present.

U. S. officials also are reported opposed to the plan because the four would be chosen from West, neutral and Communist nations, thus injecting a political element into the U. N. administration.

The door was kept open for further negotiations, however, and the United States is expected to meet with the Soviets again in a few days.

Some diplomats believe that mounting opposition to the Soviet stand may finally impel the Soviets to drop the veto idea altogether. Soviet insistence on a multilateral executive has angered many neutrals who view it as an attempt to undermine the authority of the United Nations.

U. N. operations were virtually shut down today while key delegates and secretariat members attended the state funeral for the late secretary-general, Dag Hammarskjöld, in Stockholm.

Representatives of 12 nations hope to have a resolution ready Monday which would have the assembly approve the naming of an interim candidate to supervise the running of the secretariat until a regular secretary-general can be agreed upon.

Holman Is National Auditors President

DENVER (AP)—Haskell Holman, Missouri state auditor, was elected president of the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers at its annual convention Thursday.

His review of Sorenson's record said Henninger, showed: "It was a very regular case—an instance where the registrant had done everything the law and the regulations required of him."

New Government for Syria

Progress On Crisis Difficult

Slow Getting Information On Red Plans

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Western foreign ministers were reported today to be making slow progress in obtaining information from Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko on Soviet plans for negotiating on the Berlin crisis.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Foreign Secretary Lord Home of Britain have spent a total of more than 10 hours meeting with the top Soviet diplomat in the past eight days, and their main questions about Soviet intentions are said to be still unanswered.

Western diplomats reported the talks have yielded some slight indication that the Soviet Union may be seriously interested in arranging a Big Four foreign ministers conference later on, but it obviously is in no haste to do so.

Some Western officials think Premier Khrushchev probably prefers to stall off a conference until after a Soviet Communist party meeting in Moscow late next month. There is speculation he may sign the treaty with Communist East Germany or announce definite plans for signing it at that time. Thus he may not want to get into negotiations until he has acted.

Home and Gromyko spent an hour and 20 minutes together late Thursday. It was their second meeting. Rusk previously had held two long conferences with Gromyko and is scheduled to meet him again Saturday morning.

Rusk then will hold a final talk with Home here Saturday afternoon. He plans to return to Washington Saturday night and Home expects to fly to London Sunday. Their departures probably will not end the talks, however, for Gromyko may go to Washington next week for another meeting with Rusk.

Two Sailors Save a Sub From Disaster

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Two sailors sealed themselves in a flooded compartment and saved their submarine from sinking in 12,000 feet of water, manning the engine controls until the sub resurfaced.

Lt. Cmdr. Harold Skelly, captain of the submarine Charr, reported the heroic action of the sailors Thursday.

He said John Joseph McGee of Chula Vista, Calif., and Douglass Webster of Kennewick, Wash., could easily have been electrocuted as they stood knee deep in water at the controls.

"There's about 250 volts back there," said Skelly. "You could get fried standing knee deep in water, especially salt water."

The Charr had reached 100 feet in a dive about 150 miles west of San Diego Tuesday when its engine room flooded. A rubber coupling supplying cooling water to the four engines broke and poured sea water into the compartment.

When the submarine took a 40-degree up angle to surface, the water was seven feet deep in the engine room and knee-deep in the control compartment. The compartment is just above the engine room.

High-Temperature Flight By the X-15

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The X-15 made a high-temperature run at 3,545 miles per hour Thursday in a test of its ability to withstand 1,000-degree heat.

Navy Cmdr. Forrest Petersen and the plane emerged unscathed from what officials called the highest temperatures ever attained on a manned aircraft.

The X-15 is designed for up to 1,200 degrees Fahrenheit. The heat is built up by friction and compression of air as the craft maneuvers through the atmosphere.

Dag's Funeral Attended By Many Leaders

Eloquent Tribute Paid to Devoted Mankind Servant

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP)—The world community said farewell to Dag Hammarskjöld at his funeral today.

In the gothic austerity of Uppsala's 700-year-old Lutheran Cathedral, Sweden's archbishop-emeritus, the Most Rev. Erling Eidem, paid eloquent tribute to his countryman, saying:

"We are gathered here in the house of God, around the bier where rest the remains of a faithful son of his fatherland—a devoted servant of all mankind."

No less eloquent was an American, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, representing President Kennedy, who said upon arriving in Sweden a few hours before the funeral:

"His devotion was to principles that are universal—and to a moral law which is indestructible. His service to these causes through the United Nations is proof that mortal man can owe his ultimate loyalty to deathless ideals."

Pausing dramatically, the vice president added: "The name of Dag Hammarskjöld has entered history—and history confers its highest honors for heroes of peace."

Congolese Mass Army On Border

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—United Nations authorities confirmed today that troops of the Congolese central government are massing near the Katanga border but said they so far have not crossed.

Conor Cruise O'Brien, U.N. special representative, said "a large number" of the troops had been moved by commercial airliner into Lubumbashi, Kasai Province, and heavy material is being brought up by river.

"We are aware of these movements," O'Brien told a news conference, "but it is not a matter for the United Nations to interfere with movements of the central government troops within its borders."

O'Brien said the United Nations insists as a matter of urgency on the removal of more than 100 European military and parliamentary personnel assisting the army and police of Katanga's President Moïse Tshombe.

Hoover Urges More Boys' Club Support

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover urged more public support Thursday for Boys' Clubs and children's aid centers.

The former president said such character-building organizations are "the sunlight of hope for the future of America."

Nasser Recalls Two Army Units

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Syria reasserted its independence today after less than four years as a region of the United Arab Republic and set up a new civilian government supported by rebel army officers.

President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the U.A.R. bowed to the revolutionary command which led the predawn uprising Thursday.

He announced that he had recalled troops, planes and warships sent to crush the revolt, and indicated he would leave to the Syrians the task of working out their future.

"The regime of tyranny has gone forever," said Damascus broadcasts proclaiming independence from Cairo, accusing Nasser of turning Syria into a prison and disputing his claim to Arab leadership.

Speaking to a crowd of 100,000 in Cairo, Nasser said the entire Egyptian navy, air force and two army regiments were sent to Syria but were recalled to avoid bloodshed when the rebels took over Latakia, Syria's chief port.

A party of 120 paratroops, dropped before getting the orders to return, were told to surrender, Nasser said. The Syrians already had reported the paratroops wiped out. One broadcast said 200 paratroops were wiped out and another said 120 commandos were captured, but both apparently referred to the same action.

Nasser angrily denounced the rebels as imperialist reactionaries and traitors and said he was sure the Syrian people would eventually "preserve their free principles in the face of capitalist dictatorship."

"We lost some battles," he said, but added his aims of Arab unity are long-range.

Jordan's action was announced in Amman immediately after a Cabinet meeting presided over by King Hussein.

US, Russia May Combine Atomic Effort

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission disclosed today that the United States and the Soviet Union are discussing plans to join forces in building the world's biggest nuclear accelerator—to produce the fantastic power of 500 to 1,000 billion electronvolts.

Glenn T. Seaborg, chief U.S. delegate to the conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency here, said the Russians in private talks with American scientists have indicated their interest in cooperating.

Nuclear accelerators are atom-smashers needed to determine hitherto unknown structural parts of the atom's core.

The United States last month inaugurated the biggest existing accelerator in the Brookhaven, Long Island, N.Y., laboratories, one producing 30 billion electronvolts. The biggest Soviet accelerator produces 10 bev.

Seaborg told newsmen the two countries also are seeking to cooperate in other fields of peaceful use of the atom, such as radioactive waste disposal methods and common research on fast reactors. This cooperation comes under a 1959 agreement concluded between the then AEC chairman, John McCone, and his Soviet counterpart, Prof. Vasily Emelyanov.

State Could Capture Big Steel Market

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Missouri could capture up to 14 per cent of the total domestic steel market with a steel mill located in the St. Louis area, a special study suggested today.

The study was made for the Division of Resources and Development by a New York engineering firm, Ford, Bacon & Davis, Inc.

Its report was praised by George D. Clayton Jr., of Hannibal, chairman of the commission, as envisioning one of the brightest prospects on Missouri's economic horizon.

The study was requested after the joint iron ore mining venture of Bethlehem Steel Co. and St. Joseph Lead Co. was well under way in the Pea Ridge area of eastern Missouri.

A huge store of high grade magnetite was found and a shaft to the center of the big ore body is now being driven.

Other companies have been making core drillings in the same general area and in other sections of Missouri but have not reported their success.

US Holds To Hands Off Policy

Big Question Is On Nasser's Next Move

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States held to a strict hands off policy toward the anti-Nasser Syrian revolt today while closely watching for new developments.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials said today the U. S. government has given no consideration yet to recognizing the rebel regime which appears to have gained control of Syria.

U. S. authorities said that so far the tussle seems to be an internal affair.

Reports reaching Washington overnight indicated the insurgent Syrian army officers had gained control over the bulk of their once independent country.

The pro-Nasser Egyptian military units in Syria were described as neither large nor powerful enough to handle the insurgents without some reinforcements from Egypt—150 miles away and separated by land and sea.

Amid the confused and unpredictable situation, the major question asked here was what will President Nasser of the United Arab Republic do next? Will he seek a peaceful settlement with the rebels or will he order an armed attack against the revolt, which they indicate they want more autonomy or complete independence?

State Department press officer Joseph W. Reap outlined the U.S. non-interference policy Thursday by saying the cause of the uprising appears to be purely internal—not fomented by an outside power.

The United States recognizes the United Arab Republic and has friendly diplomatic relations with the Nasser regime.

Reap added that the Americans in Syria are believed to be safe. An estimated 400 to 600 U.S. citizens, depending on the number of American tourists, are in the area.

U.S. officials were not surprised by the revolt, for evidence that it might come has been mounting since the Egypt-Syria union forming the U.A.R. was first joined in February 1958.

Into Use Today

Power Doubled By a New Line

Electric power available to Sedalia and the surrounding area has been more than doubled with the construction of a new 161,000 volt line, and a new substation just west of Sedalia, which was put into use for the first time today.

Present at a dedication ceremony at 11:30 a.m. this morning, when the switch was thrown putting the line into service, were City and County officials and heads of various civic groups in Sedalia, in addition to Company officials. Following the throwing of the switch the invited guests were guests of the company at a noon luncheon.

The line has the largest capacity of any previously constructed by Missouri Public Service Company, and carries 161,000 volts from a new substation southwest of Sedalia, giving the Company an interconnection through the Southwestern Power Administration's substation at Clinton with the Company's system there and with Kansas City Power and Light Company's Montrose Generating Station. The line is substantially 35 miles long.

The total cost of the project to Missouri Public Service Company exceeds $1,500,000. The line itself cost $740,000. The cost of the substation near Sedalia was nearly $729,000. In addition to that, substantially $50,000 more is being spent in Sedalia for new substation gear to improve service in connecting the new substation to the Company's present transmission and distribution system.

The project will add 25,000 KVA directly to the present Sedalia capacity, which will more than double the amount of electricity that can be taken from the Sedalia system when needed. In addition to that, the system is constructed so that with the placing of additional transformers the system can be more than doubled again and provides sufficient power.

'Desk Flying' Air Generals To Shape Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Curtis E. LeMay has taken steps to require the 91 Air Force generals flying desks at the Pentagon to play squash, lift weights or exercise regularly in some other way.

The Air Force chief of staff, a pretty rugged type himself, has expressed "very, very great concern" that generals doing staff work keep in top shape, sources said.

To this end, the Air Force Surgeon General, Maj. Gen. Oliver K. Neiss, has drafted a program which is expected to gain final approval by LeMay.

Each general would be required to undergo a physical examination by an Air Force doctor, who then would recommend whatever measures might be needed to keep down waistlines and stay in trim generally.

Under the plan, general officers would have a couple of options. They could leave their offices for at least a half day a week for recreation or exercise "of which physical activity is an essential element." This could include golf.

If they preferred, the generals could take more strenuous exercise for shorter periods of time at an officers' gymnasium in the Pentagon. Available there are handballs, swimming, weightlifting, squash and the like.

Protestant Pastor Convicted As Spy

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—A Protestant pastor and another Yugoslav were convicted Thursday on charges of spying for a West German intelligence service and making anti-Yugoslav propaganda.

Belgrade, Yugoslavia (AP)—A Protestant pastor and another Yugoslav were convicted Thursday on charges of spying for a West German intelligence service and making anti-Yugoslav propaganda.

The pastor, Istvan Czepczynski, was sentenced to 7½ years. His co-defendant, Rudolf Grafenstein, drew a four-year term. They were tried at Becej, a northern town, the official Yugoslav news agency Tanjug said.

Announcing the closing, he said six million pesos had passed through the casinos last month. That is about a million dollars at the free market exchange rate.

The casinos were closed in the first days of Castro's regime early in 1959 but were reopened on a reduced scale to keep hotel employees and croupiers at work. At the end only about five were left and they operated in government-run hotels.

Castro told the crowd that gambling made "even workers victims" but he was more concerned with the rich and the "exploiting elements."

Addressing a huge rally at Havana's Square of the Revolution, Castro promised measures to rehabilitate Havana's prostitutes and drive out white slave racketeers.

He warned dealers in the vice they face stiff penalties and told them to "go to Miami if they want. We will even pay their plane tickets." This was greeted with cheers.

The scene at the gambling casinos was more sober. Players immediately started leaving when told of Castro's order.

In the days of the Fulgencio Batista dictatorship, Havana had about 25 gambling casinos. They were a prime attraction for both tourists and American underworld figures who operated them—with a cut of the profits going to government officials.

An Outpost of Truth

Guesswork over possible terms of an East-West Berlin settlement often include the idea that we might give up our powerful propaganda transmitter, RIAS, based in the U.S. sector.

Nothing so irritates the Communists as a steady barrage of the truth. They have fumed at RIAS for years. Yet some are saying the free world's loss would be relatively minor if we silenced this major irritant.

To weigh the worth of that judgment, we should look at a few things relating to RIAS and propaganda broadcasts in Germany.

Perhaps most important, RIAS is probably the single most successful propaganda transmitter in the entire free world.

It is reliably estimated, on the basis of polling among refugees, that the station is listened to by three-fourths of the 17 million East German population.

Its power of 300,000 watts, six times that of the strongest commercial U.S. transmitters, is unmatched. It broadcasts on seven different frequencies covering all wave bands, using all at peak listening hours, and some around the clock.

The Communists employ 600 jamming transmitters, nearly a third of all they have, in a largely futile effort to blot out this flood of information. The cost is immense, since a jammer is just as expensive to set up as any other transmitter.

Though all RIAS broadcasts are in German, U.S. officials know that the station's eastward beamed signal reaches into Poland, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia and other satellites and they presume many there who understand the language are regular listeners.

Ingenious Communists mount some jammers on mobile equipment and move them about East Berlin. Ingenious Germans find that by moving their radios around the room they often can defeat the hard-working jammers.

It is overwhelmingly evident that to many millions in Germany and beyond, RIAS is not only the desperately sought voice of truth, but the reassuring sound of hope. You can understand its impact when you contrast it with a typical "news" item fed by Red propagandists to the East Berliners.

Commenting on a West German appeal to 25,000 young people to move to West Berlin to help infuse the city with new life, the Reds said:

"A little army of rowdies is to take action. . . . They will knock citizens down, they will bother women, they will damage interurban trains, they will steal, organize provocations and terrorize all decent people."

This is a mild sample. In many, the distortions, the vituperation and the insults tax the credibility of even the most glib.

To silence RIAS would be to diminish the hopes of millions and to yield the field to arrogant Communist falsehood. This seems much more than the minor concession some say it is. Dare we abandon our stoutest output of truth?

Washington Merry-Go-Round

JFK Does a Slow Boil Over Ike

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Shortly before he left Washington, President Kennedy had a breakfast meeting with Democratic members of Congress in which for the first time he took off the gloves against the man whom he called "my predecessor."

Kennedy never mentioned Dwight D. Eisenhower by name. Nor did he lose his temper. But it was obvious that he was plenty burned up at the man whom he had invited back to the White House many times, had sent emissaries up to Gettysburg to keep informed, but who had unmercifully blasted him, Kennedy, before a rip-roaring $100-a-plate GOP dinner in Chicago by declaring, among other things, that the Republicans had no plans to encourage an invasion of Cuba.

"Irresponsible and erroneous" was Kennedy's description of the Eisenhower speech. He added that he was deeply disturbed and disappointed.

"Some of the problems we face on the international scene, including Laos and Cuba, were definitely inherited from those who now find fault with the way we are handling them," the President declared. "Our critics would do well to consider their own record when they accuse us."

In the past Kennedy has gone out of his way to do just the opposite of what Eisenhower did to Harry Truman after Truman left the White House. However, judging from JFK's recent acidity before House members, it would seem doubtful that Ike will be a regular caller at the White House in the future.

Rain and Sunshine
Kennedy also had some acid comments regarding the manner in which the "Republican press" and the Republican party distorted the news.

"Farm income is now one billion dollars higher than in the last 11 years," he said dryly. "Frankly, this is chiefly due to the sun and the rain. But if it were the other way around and our Republican friends were in power, I doubt if they would be willing to give the elements any credit."

Kennedy admitted that there might be a federal deficit of more than $4 billion in the current fiscal year, but explained that much of this was due to increased expenditures for certain phases of space and scientific research "largely neglected by the previous administration." He added that the government eventually would recoup about $800,000,000 from unemployment insurance, farm and housing loans, etc.

"Now, let's look at the record of our critics," he said. "The previous administration had a deficit of $12 billion in one year alone, during

Guest Editorial

WASHINGTON MISSOURIAN: Bored, So They Beat Up a Man.—Three St. Louis high school youths beat up a frail man in his early fifties in that city one night.

They did it "just for the fun of it," one of the boys said.

The other two said they were bored—nothing to do all day, but sit around. One of them said he wished school was open so he would have something to do. Other teenagers with whom these three usually gather at a common meeting place said they, too, were bored, and wished they were back in school.

In a way we feel sorry for these young loafers. They are not loafers by choice. Most of them undoubtedly would rather work, even at a part-time job, but work for many of them is out of the question. Our paternal government has taken care of that.

It's not easy for a youngster to get a job today—not because there are no jobs to be had, but because under our labor laws, young people are not permitted to work in places where there is machinery, even though they don't operate any of the machines.

Employers, who have given young people part-time jobs in the past, have found themselves confronted by labor inspectors, and ended up paying stiff penalties.

We don't believe in child labor, but high school boys and girls are not children, and a summer vacation job would do them no harm. It certainly would be better than idleness and boredom for most of them, and bad trouble for some of them.

the 1958 recession. I might add that we also inherited this recession from them, in addition to foreign policy problems.

"But I am happy about the domestic outlook. We are overcoming the recession. We have stopped inflation. Farm income is the highest in years. The outflow of gold has been reversed, so that the balance is now in our favor. Industrial production was falling off under the previous administration. It is now going up."

Kennedy commented that it was "difficult to get the facts across to the public, because most of our press is controlled by the other party." He said it would be up to Democratic members of Congress to publicize the record by speeches in their districts.

"Give the people the whole story," suggested shows our critics don't practice the same economy they now advocate for us. For example, during the eight years my predecessor was in office, he spent $188 billion more than President Truman spent, even though there was a war during the Truman administration."

Washington Whirl
Trans World Airlines has protested bitterly to Congresswoman Edith Green, Oregon Democrat, for booking a flight to Europe on Scandinavian Airlines. She is taking her House labor subcommittee to Russia. . . . A TWA official complained to her over the phone that President Kennedy has urged Americans to curb their foreign spending in order to keep U.S. gold at home. (SAS makes through connections to Moscow. With American lines you have to change. The State Department recently suspended the direct flight negotiations for U.S. lines which Moscow wanted to conclude.) . . . Lufthansa, the German airline, is doing so much business on Capitol Hill that it has named one of its flights to Europe "The Senator."

Highway Mirage

Rex Whitton, U.S. highway administrator, says the reason some city freeways are congested is that no metropolitan area has a completed freeway system. When these networks are finished, he adds, things will flow nicely.

The citizens of Los Angeles might be surprised to hear this. They have a pretty elaborate freeway system in being right now, and yet at the rush hours you could almost walk to work on the tops of the jammed-in cars.

Admittedly no other U.S. communities have quite the cars-to-people ratio that Los Angeles has. But many places look for similar crushing traffic by the time their freeway webs are ready.

Anyway, Mr. Whitton has given us a nice fall weather dream.

Heavier Than Air

There is no sure way of estimating the damage air pollution in our cities does to human health, but it is widely believed by medical specialists and others to be very substantial.

Estimates have been made that pollution costs us several billions a year in harm to livestock, vegetation, buildings and materials, property values.

Against these heavy and largely incalculable drains on our life and substance, we must set the fact that United States states and cities together spend only $9.5 million annually to attack pollution problems. Though hundreds of cities of varying sizes are afflicted, only about 100 have control programs with full-time staffs.

It seems a pretty mousy assault on a mountainous difficulty.

How to Perfect 'Em

Premier Khrushchev's announcement that Communist Party members and government officials are expected to be, in effect, honest, trustworthy, loyal, thrifty, obedient, etc., brings to mind an incident of the French Revolution.

It will be recalled that in 1794, Robespierre, head of the Committee of Public Safety, decreed the "eRepublic of Virtue." All Frenchmen were henceforth going to be morally perfect, if he had to guillotine them into it.

Mongolians Don't Question Freedom

EDITOR'S NOTE — Enigmatic Outer Mongolia raises many questions in international politics these days: Is the "Mongolian People's Republic" a pawn of the Soviet Union, of Red China, or both? Will the U.N. Security Council agree next week on its admission to the U.N.? What will be the repercussions if Nationalist China vetoes such admission? Here is a look at this controversial country, by one of the few reporters to visit it in recent years. The writer is a Far Eastern correspondent of the Wall Street Journal, from which this article is condensed.

By IGOR OGANESOFF

Wall Street Journal Reporter

ULAN BATOR, Mongolia (AP) —Mongolians, from top Communist officials to the lowliest yak herders, exhibit seemingly genuine surprise when their independence is questioned. They respond that their nation of 937,000 people and 23 million sheep, goats, camels and yaks is completely sovereign.

Rivalry between Red China and the Soviet Union over which is to be the dominant influence possibly allows Mongolia some independence it would not otherwise enjoy. Both China and the Soviet Union, in order to avert an open tug of war over Mongolia, try to observe the niceties of dealing with an independent state. Partly as a result of this, Mongolia appears free to draft domestic policies of its own, though well within the framework of Marxist-Leninist doctrine.

Mongolia, once a world power, in the 12th Century spawned conqueror Genghis Khan and ruled an empire stretching from Shanghai to the Danube River. Mongolia now covers 606,000 square miles, an area not quite three times the size of France. It is a landlocked nation 2,000 miles from Moscow and the most remote, hard-to-get-to land in the Red empire. Communism came in 1921 when Soviet troops, pursuing fleeing White Russian army units, helped local revolutionaries form a Red-style state.

With its vast pasture lands, the country continues to rely on livestock-raising as the mainstay of its economy. But Mongolia, where winter temperatures sometimes dive to 50 degrees below zero, now boasts some of the trappings of an industrial state, thanks to aid from Red China and the Soviet Union.

Mongolia follows a course of unwavering loyalty to Communist ideology, perhaps in part as a price to restrain the Chinese or Soviets from seizing outright control. As for which of the two big powers plays a larger role here, Mongolia clearly favors the U.S.S.R. as a closer ally.

Some recent developments however, do suggest growing national sovereignty. Mongolia has opened diplomatic relations with nine states outside the Communist bloc in the past five years, bringing to 21 the number of nations with which it carries on diplomatic dealings. No U.S. Western ally—nor even neutral Switzerland—is on the list yet.

Mongolian technicians and supervisors are replacing Soviet experts as fast as Mongolians can be trained, thus giving the country more control over its own affairs.

Mongolian officials insist their Communist system is slightly different from the Soviet or Chinese way. It's noted, for example, that collectivization of agriculture here has meant livestock, and not land as in the Soviet Union and China, with the inevitable result that different administrative setups have evolved in Mongolia.

Despite penetration of Communist economic organization into almost all phases of rural and town life, there is an apparent attempt to preserve a distinct Mongolian identity. Relatively few Soviets or other nationalities have settled among the Mongolians.

But Mongolia clearly has relatively little freedom of action in important foreign policy issues. Premier Tsedenbal, Moscow-trained and married to the daughter of a former mayor of Moscow, needs no direct wire to the Kremlin to anticipate the official line.

Premier Tsedenbal is not above references to "American imperialists," but his utterances are usually fairly mild. In general, little anti-U.S. propaganda appears in Mongolian newspapers, according to a non-Communist analyst who surveys the local press.

There's no trace of Soviet-style over-the-shoulder wariness about being seen with an American. And Mongolians don't act like regimented people; very few soldiers or militia are in evidence on the broad avenues of Ulan Bator. But in many ways Mongolian life follows the repressive patterns of other Communist countries.

Religious worship is now illegal in Mongolia. By 1939 almost all the 1,818 temples and 747 Buddhist lamaseries that existed before the revolution had been shut or converted to museums.

By and large, Mongolians enthusiastically endorse the idea of opening diplomatic relations with the United States, though some seem piqued the United States has delayed recognition so long.

"It would be good to have ties with the United States—maybe we could learn and adopt some things from your system," mused a party worker, momentarily forgetting his Marxist upbringing.

The Mature Parent

Demands for Obedience Often Lack True Need

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

What would you do about a 12-year-old girl who says "I don't feel like it" when you ask her to turn down the TV volume so you can talk on the telephone? I would have been spanked within an inch of my life if I'd talked to my mother like that. But people like you don't approve of that kind of training, do you? I suppose your advice would be to just let the disobedience go. . . .

ANSWER: No. What I would do is put down the telephone receiver, walk over to the TV, turn down its volume and say, "When I've finished this call, I will expect you to tell me why you couldn't do me the favor that I asked of you." And I would want a satisfactory answer.

Look, madam, we modern parents are in a spot. Many, many demands we make on children are for our convenience.

It wasn't always like that. What was demanded of children was demanded out of needs which they could see.

A son was told to chop wood, and he chopped it because he knew that the wood was needed to cook dinner.

A daughter was told to pump a pail of water, and she pumped it because she knew that water was needed to quench thirst.

Children stopped playing with rain barrels when they were told to because they understood the family need to preserve soft water for the washing of clothes. Children were disciplined, not only by parents but by their own experience of necessity.

It's not like that any more. Our children do not feel the same interest in preserving a telephone conversation that was once felt in preserving a woodpile.

We cannot give the same meaning to an order to return empty pop bottles to a store that could be given to an order to pick vegetables for winter canning upon which a child knew his family's survival depended.

Today, the dignity of need seldom supports our demands for obedience.

It is wise to note how much we ask of children is for our convenience. Then some of the excited belligerence goes out of us when they refuse to do us some favor. In the child who wouldn't turn down the TV volume we see merely someone who has refused us a favor, instead of a wicked insubordinate.

We can treat her as we would treat any other friend who refused us a favor.

The Doctor's Mailbag

Temperature Fluctuations Rarely Are Illness Signal

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M. D.

Q—While I was in the hospital having my baby, a nurse took my temperature and then asked me if I'd been chewing ice. It was only 96.2 degrees. When I said I hadn't, she answered that I must be bleeding.

Ever since I've gotten home, I've been watching my temperature regularly and it varies between 97.2 and 98.4. Since I'm weary most of the time and break out in a sweat trying to make ordinary efforts to get my work done, I wondered whether I was suffering from this low temperature or from whatever causes my temperature to be subnormal?

A—From your nurse's question, I assume you have been taking mouth readings. These are subject to many errors that can be avoided by taking rectal readings.

However, what you report are normal variations. Mouth temperatures are usually about one degree less than rectal. Morning temperatures are usually about one degree less than those taken in the midafternoon.

Some of us have normal rectal readings as low as 96 in the morning and 97 in the afternoon. Others normally run between 98 or even 98.6 and 99 to 99.6.

What's important is to observe that the daily fluctuation does not exceed one degree and that there is no significant rise in the whole of the the normal level. This is to say, if you normally register 96 to 97, an increase to the levels of 97 to 98 might be significant.

As to subnormal temperatures under ordinary conditions, they are rarely significant of any disturbance and almost certainly don't account for your complaints which are not too unusual after a pregnancy.

Q—Is there any cure for pityriasis rosea?

A—Pityriasis rosea, with its diffuse rash of pinkish spots that crinkle like cigarette paper, is a harmless, self-limited disturbance. Except for the itching, it causes no discomfort.

With or without treatment it disappears within the course of a few weeks to a few months. It is apparently noninfectious since household spread is not observed.

For some unknown reason, it occurs most often in the spring or fall and attacks females more often than males.

Q—In a recent article you wrote of a group of 300 children who had recovered from an upper respiratory infection but whose throats still harbored hemolytic streptococci.

Instead of the penicillin you advocated why wouldn't it have been simpler, as effective and less expensive to swab their throats with merthiolate? Why has the practice of throat swabbing become unpopular with the medical profession?

A—Throat swabbing with any and all medicinals is wholly ineffective. First of all, it's impossible to get the solution into the nooks and crannies in which infective organisms take refuge. Second, it isn't possible to maintain contact with those that can be reached for a sufficient length of time and in sufficient concentration to deal them a death blow. And third, even if the swabbing killed nine out of 10 organisms, the single survivor would make up for the population loss within the matter of a very few hours.

For the most part, throat swabbing is like trying to thoroughly clean a room by waving broom and mop from a standing position at the front door.

Little Chats on Public Notice

DELINQUENT TAXES

In some states the law permits the tax collector to be more lenient with taxpayers than is permissible in other states. Maine is one of the states where the law provides for prompt collection of local taxes. It also has a rising scale of penalties for being late in the payment of such taxes.

An example of this was supplied by two nearby towns in an ocean resort area. In both towns' meetings were held the same day at which, among other things, the voters decided on the method of collection.

In one town it was decided that no interest would be charged on taxes paid by October 1 of that year. But interest from September 1 was to be charged at the rate of 6 per cent on all taxes paid after October 1.

In the other the townspeople voted to charge interest on unpaid taxes after August 31. If paid in September, the rate was 1 per cent, if in October 2 per cent, and 5 per cent thereafter. Maine also permits early sale of property if delinquent taxes are not paid.

In the case of both towns referred to, notice was given of the tax collection schedule, with penalties, in the local newspaper. This was in line with the principle that persons at interest have a basic right to be put on notice of any action, or proposed action, affecting their rights. As in hundreds of legal situations, the newspaper is a preferred medium for this kind of notice.

Bible Passage Is Declared An Advertisement

BATH, England (AP) — "Prepare to meet thy God," says a sign in six-foot letters on the roof of the local Baptist Church.

Thursday, 60 years after the message first was put there—Bath's town planners ordered it to be taken down. They said it was advertising.

"The sign was affecting the visual amenities of the area," said J. G. Wilkinson, planning officer of the elegant spa city in Somerset, which is fussy about such things.

But the church minister, The Rev. W. H. Parsons, declared: "It is not advertising—it's a text from the scriptures."

And he said the church plans to put more such messages up on the roof.

The City Council has been asked to decide the issue.

er for any foreseeable load for Sedalia and the surrounding area. The step-down transformer facilities for reducing the current from 161,000 volts to 69,000 volts will add substantially to the power available for Whiteman Air Force Base and the area in the communities of Warrensburg, Warsaw, Cole Camp and Lincoln.

The line provides a second tie-in with the main generating facilities of Missouri Public Service Company to Sedalia, the other being a 69,000 volt line from Warrensburg and a third power line source is a 69,000 volt line tying in with Empire District Electric Company's system through a substation near Hermitage.

Company plans for the future, according to Carl J. Mason, Executive Vice President, call for a 161,000 volt line to be built from Sedalia to a point near Versailles, Mo., where it will interconnect with a similar line to be constructed by the Union Electric Company from their facilities at Bagnell Dam. At the time such plan is completed, Missouri Public Service Company will have substantial tie-ins with a Missouri grid interconnecting of electric power lines with Kansas City Power and Light Company, Empire District Electric Company of Joplin, and Union Electric Company of St. Louis.

Invited guests from Sedalia to the dedication ceremonies this morning were the Mayor, City Attorney, Members of the City Council, Members of the County Court, presidents of the Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, and Optimist Club, in addition to representatives of newspapers, radio and TV stations.

Company officials from the General Office attending the dedication included Richard C. Green, President; Carl J. Mason, Executive Vice President; J. W. Stephens, Assistant to the President; J. C. Griffin, Treasurer; R. L. Sawyer, Municipal Relations Director; Earl D. Dryer, General Superintendent; James S. Allen, Electrical Engineer; and from the Sedalia District Office were William B. Rich, District Manager; C. F. Black, District Engineer; Keith Larson, Assistant District Engineer; and T. M. Foster, Chief Clerk.

Harold G. Thiele filed a petition for divorce against Josephine M. Thiele in Circuit Court Sept. 28. William F. Brown is the attorney for the plaintiff.

Michigan Has Another Top Pipe Smoker

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — There must be something about the air in Michigan that's conducive to pipe smoking.

Seven times in the 13 years the International Association of Pipe Smokers Clubs has held its world championship, the winner has been from Michigan—and from the city of Flint.

Arthur Gerdes, 57, a safety appliance builder in a General Motors plant, managed to keep his straight stem, square bowl briar going Thursday for one hour, 4 minutes and 17 seconds—far from a record but good enough to whip a fellow smoker from Flint, Paul Spaniola.

As a matter of fact, the last four winners have been from Flint. The defending champion, Richard J. Austin, lasted only a little more than 26 minutes, then bowed out as his pipe went out. "Well, here's another has-been," he remarked. "I smoked too slow, that's all."

The judges handed 3.3 grams of special contest tobacco and two kitchen matches to the 19 contestants—three of them women.

After 16 minutes and 51 seconds, out went the first pipe—that of Erna Gerdes, wife of the eventual champion.

She admitted it was her first attempt at smoking a pipe. Did she plan to keep on? "I believe I'll quit."

One by one, the other contestants dropped out, victims of "flameouts." Pipes cannot be stoked up again once they've gone out.

Finally it was down to Spaniola, the 1951 winner, and Gerdes.

At the 57-minute, 47-second mark, Spaniola's pipe went out. Gerdes lasted another 6 1/2 minutes.

Gerdes' performance was far from the record—that's 2 hours, 5 minutes, 7 seconds set in 1954 by the late Max Ingree, another Flint smoker.

Macmillan Has Warm Words For India's Leader

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan sent a warm message Thursday night to Prime Minister Nehru, expressing deep regret at casualties suffered by Indian forces serving with the United Nations in Katanga.

An official announcement from Macmillan's office said: "He (Macmillan) has also made it clear that at no stage has the British government given any support to allegations of inhumane conduct by Indian troops in the Congo. He has told Mr. Nehru that now, as always, the British government holds the Indian army in the highest regard."

British newspapers have reported Indian troops fired on ambulances brought up by Katanga units during the flareup in Katanga. Indian spokesmen have replied the ambulances contained armed men.

He was born in Aschendorf, Germany, came to this country in 1882, eventually becoming an assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

One of his favorite observations was: "Hoover's depression was nothing. Cleveland's was twice as bad."

Mercy Romps Past Hubbard Tigers 35-14

Mercy High School of Marshall continued its winning ways, Thursday night, when they set the Hubbard High School Tigers down 35-14 in the locals first game of the season. Only a fair size crowd was at the Jennie Jaynes Stadium to see the game, which, in spite of the one-sided score, was interesting to watch.

The visitors jumped to a first quarter lead of 7-0 when Wayne Barr carried for the touchdown after the Tigers fumbled on their own 49. The drive was on from that point to the four. Barr then came through on a rushing play for the extra point.

In the second quarter, after a drive put the ball on the one yard line, Barr again went through for the touchdown. This time Ed Hightower carried for the extra point and the visitors were leading 14-0. After gaining possession of the ball, and a drive carried it down field, Barr again took over and carried it through the center of the line for another score. Hightower had the honor of collecting the extra point on a running play, which gave Mercy a 21-0 lead.

With 13 seconds left in the half, the ball on the 43 yard line, Ronald Johnson connected with Glenn Whitney who went 57-yards for the touchdown. Johnson carried the ball for the extra point. The half ended with Mercy 21 and Hubbard 7.

In the second half the game was a little more evenly played. Mercy after taking the ball on a punt on their own 20, moved a drive down field to the one-yard line from which Dale Schulte, on a quarter-back sneak carried it over. Barr ran the ball for the extra point. When the third quarter ended it was Mercy 28, Hubbard 7.

Opening of the fourth quarter saw the Mercy eleven on a drive which took them to the two and a half yard line from which Ed Hightower carried it over for the score. Barr hit the line for the extra point, giving Mercy 35 points to the Tigers 7.

Later in the quarter Glenn Whitney made a sensational interception of Schulte's pass, taking it on his own 45 yard line and went 53 yards for a touchdown. Whitney then completed a pass to Ronald Johnson for the extra point, giving the Tigers 14 points to the visitors 35.

In the final 47 seconds of the quarter, Mercy gained control of the ball on Johnson's fumble, and an incomplete pass ended the game.

Paret Given New Chance At Griffith

NEW YORK (AP)—Benny (Kid) Paret held the world welterweight boxing championship 11 months before he lost it to swashbuckling Emile Griffith.

The Cuban, 24, gets a return title crack at Griffith in a 15-round television (ABC 9 p.m., Eastern Standard Time) fight at Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

"I'd sure like to get the title back," said Paret through an interpreter. "You don't know what being champion means until you're no longer champion."

The odds are 3-1, however, that the muscular, aggressive kid won't dethrone Griffith.

Griffith, 23, a Virgin Islands native now living in New York, has won eight straight fights over strong opponents and has shown improvement—especially in power—with each fight.

A fair puncher before, the tireless youngster developed a knock-out punch within the last year. In his last five fights he stopped South Africa's Willie Towel in eight rounds; outpointed Cuba's Luis Rodriguez, then the No. 1 contender; knocked out Paret in the 13th round of their title bout at Miami Beach April 1; stopped Gaspar Ortega in the 12th round of a title defense at Los Angeles June 3 (Ortega's first kayo loss) and rocked Yama Bahama in out-pointing the middleweight at New York last July 29.

Griffith's record is 25-2, including nine knockouts. He never has been stopped.

Paret's record is 33-10-3, including 9 knockouts. He has been stopped twice.

Benny hasn't fought since he lost the title to Griffith. He collected $20,000 for stepping aside and permitting Griffith to defend against Ortega.

Each fighter figures to make around $25,000 Saturday night on the $60,000 television fee and about $20,000 in gate receipts. Each will receive 30 per cent of the TV and gate money.

Sees Added Prestige In Big Eight

MU Tigers Travel To Minnesota To Meet Northern Foe

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Missouri Tigers and Oklahoma Sooners can add prestige to the Big Eight Conference Saturday but there is no guarantee they will do so.

Oklahoma, playing Notre Dame at South Bend, will have a national television audience to impress. However, coach Bud Wilkinson still is rebuilding his Sooners and hardly anyone expects them to measure up to the invincible Oklahoma teams of the '50s.

The Sooners flew to Indiana Thursday and worked out in Michigan City behind closed gates. They will have another secret drill today.

Missouri, the Orange Bowl champion, travels to Minneapolis today to face big Minnesota, Rose Bowl runner-up. Coach Dan Devine is taking 38 men, leaving behind Tom Smith, guard and Al Schultz, fullback. Both have injuries.

At Lawrence, coach Jack Mitchell said his Kansas Jayhawks appeared ready for Wyoming's invasion, although there were quibbles about the throwing of Chuck Lamson, Wyoming quarterback. Mitchell plans to star Hugh Smith at left half and Benny Boydston at right end, with the rest of the line-up unchanged from last week.

Added to Kansas State's injury list were wingback Ralph McMillen and Al Koueski, starting center. Each sprained an ankle in Thursday's workout and may not be able to play against the Air Force at Denver.

Coach Doug Weaver and 39 players left for Denver today. It was the first varsity road trip for 25 of the players.

A fair puncher before, the tireless youngster developed a knock-out punch within the last year. Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: My fiancé gave me what he said was a mink cape for my birthday. I got caught in the rain with it and it sure didn't act like mink. I think he got rabbit.

I showed him how it matted up and smelled sort of peculiar. Then he admitted that he bought the cape from a man who came by the office building and said he needed some money in a hurry.

Now that I know the circumstances I'm sure he got taken for a ride. Of course he has no idea of how to get in touch with the man who sold him the cape. What can he do?—GYPPED

Dear Gyped: He can kick himself for being such a yokel. People who know nothing about fur should know a furrier. It's only common sense to buy from an established firm, a firm which, in accordance with the fur-labeling act, states on the ticket the name of the animal that gave his life for m'laday.

Dear Ann Landers: I used to think you made up the letters but after what happened to me I'd believe anything.

My wife and I were married seven years. I thought we were happy. Last month she asked for a divorce. I almost had a heart attack. She told me she wanted to marry an old flame. He turned up five months ago and they took up where they left off in college.

She filed for divorce and we agreed to live in the same house until the decree was final for financial reasons. She cooks, cleans, does the laundry — and goes out with him four nights a week.

I knew there was something phony about this jerk but exactly what I couldn't say. If he was so nuts about my wife, what was he doing the other three nights? So I tailed him. Sure enough, he was meeting another woman. I told my wife but she wouldn't believe me. So the next night I took her along.

Now she has called off the divorce and swears she'll be true to me as long as she lives. Should I give her another chance?

OLD SHERLOCK

Dear Sherlock: After an experience like this I'm willing to bet she'll be a first-rate wife. Give her a chance to prove she means what she says.

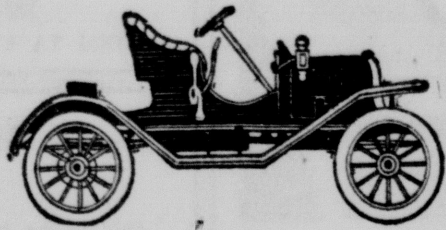

Dear Ann Landers: I'm going with a girl who is very intelligent and has a lot of character. The one thing that bothers me about her is that she gets herself up in sort of an off-beat way and sometimes I think she goes too far.

Confidential to YOUNG AT HEART: It sounds as if this Mata Hari in ankle socks is steaming up your glasses, Dad. Why don't you pick on someone your own age?

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for Ann Landers' booklet, "What To Expect From Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to

NEW TARGET: The Corruptors

FRIDAYS
10-11 PM, EDT
ABC-TV

Deaths and injuries result when sub-standard materials and work cause collapse of a new highway tunnel. Reason: Someone greedy for graft.

This dramatic ABC-TV series exposes big-time organized crime by crooked operators who constantly mulct the public, mostly via corruption of "respectable" people. Stars are Stephen McNally as Paul Marino, probing syndicated news columnist and Robert Harland as Jack Flood, his investigator.

1959 Miss USA Files Paternity Suit On Lawyer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Terry Huntingdon, 21, winner of the 1959 Miss USA beauty title, said in a suit that Arthur J. Crowley, a Hollywood lawyer, is the father of a child she expects in April.

Miss Huntingdon, first Miss Mt. Shasta and then Miss California, won her title at the Miss Universe contest in Long Beach.

She declares that Crowley gave her $600 in response to her demand for funds to pay medical bills. But she said he compelled her to sign a promissory note for the money.

The complaint, filed Thursday, asks the court to adjudge Crowley the father of the child and to contribute to its support and Miss Huntingdon's care pending the birth. Crowley is a bachelor. His law partner, Harold Rhoden, said Crowley will deny paternity.

"MARSHALL DILLON" — Selected half-hour episodes of the top-rated "Gunsmoke" series will be recreated fresh excitement when "Marshall Dillon" becomes a regular feature. (Channel 6, Tuesday, 6:30 p.m.)

DICK POWELL SHOW — Van Heflin makes his film television debut in "Ricochet," the drama of a dedicated man who is almost destroyed by the very people he tries to help. (Channel 8, 8 p.m. Tuesday)

WAGON TRAIN—Polly Bergen will be guest star in "The Kitty Albright Story." She portrays a dedicated nurse, who fights filth, disease and misconceptions about her profession. (Channel 8, 6:30 p.m. Wednesday)

"THE ALVIN SHOW"—Stanley, a noble eagle who unfortunately doesn't know how to fly, is taken under the wing of the three chipmunks—Alvin, Theodore and Simon—in the premiere episode of "The Alvin Show." Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. on CBS.

In another segment of the animated cartoon show, Clyde Crashcup, the great inventor—who gave to mankind such conveniences as the horse (and, consequently, the West), electricity and Egypt—applies his genius in creating the bathtub.

RAWHIDE GUEST — Darren McGavin guest stars as a former wagonmaster, burdened by guilt, who helps trail boss Gil Favor and his drovers round up a herd of cattle in wild brush country, in "The Sendoff" on "Rawhide" Friday, 6:30 p.m. on CBS-TV.

Favor finds the one-time wagonmaster, Jed Hadley, living in the rugged area not far from a spot where a wagon train had been ambushed by Comanches and enlists his aid in rounding up the cattle.

Eric Fleming and Clint Eastwood co-star as Gil Favor and his ramrod, Rowdy Yates.

THE DETECTIVES — This series has been expanded to an hour-long detective series, and will now be seen on Friday at 7 p.m. on Channel 8. In this story, Captain Matt Holbrook (Robert Taylor) finds his newest detective, Sgt. Steve Nelson (Adam West, in his series debut) reciting his own poetry to a beatnik.

DINAH SHORE SHOW—Returning for the 11th season on NBC-TV, Dinah is now seen Friday at 8:30 p.m., alternate weeks, on Channel 8. (On alternate weeks, "The Bell Telephone Hour" is seen in this time period.) The program is scheduled to be telecast "live" from Hollywood.

"THE TWILIGHT ZONE" — James Cagney stars as a former sergeant of the Confederacy with uncommon compassion for a woman caught in the aftermath of war, in "The Passersby" on Rod Serling's "The Twilight Zone" Friday at 9 p.m. on CBS-TV.

Joanne Linville is featured as Lavinia Godwin, whose once proud mansion is a shattered ruin and whose unwillingness to accept the consequences of the South's defeat is changed by the sergeant as he tries to help her prepare for the future.

PALADIN HIRED — Farmer Henry Grey, who never has any fun and is dominated by his mother, hires Paladin to help him retrieve his pride and the price he has paid for Callie, a fun-loving Greek mail-order bride who has gone off to neighbor Rud Saxon's place, where they dance and laugh, on "Have Gun, Will Travel" Saturday at 8:30 p.m. on CBS-TV.

Richard Boone stars as Paladin. Chana Eden plays Callie; Charles Bronson plays Henry Grey; George Kennedy appears as Rud Saxon, who dares to claim the girl he wanted.

77 SUNSET STRIP—Vacationing at an exclusive women's health ranch, Suzanne (Jacqueline Boer) finds beautiful actress Claire Dickens (Kathleen Crowley) in danger and then finds her own life threatened, in "The Desert Spa Caper." Channel 8, Saturday at 10 p.m.

SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES — "Titanic," starring Clifton Webb, and Barbara Stanwyck in the story of the luxury liner which sank in the North Atlantic on April 15, 1912, taking with it the lives of 1,517 passengers and crew, will be shown on the network movie this week. Other stars in the movie are Robert Wagner, Thelma Ritter and Richard Basehart. This movie will be shown in the full, un-cut version. (Channel 8, 8 p.m. Saturday)

PERRY MASON (Raymond Burr) gets involved in the complexities of maritime law—and a murder — after a storm-tossed freighter dumps its cargo in "The Case of the Malicious Mariner" on "Perry Mason" Saturday at 6:30 p.m. on CBS-TV.

Mason's client, Jerry Griffin (Lee Farr), the ship's first officer, saves the freighter from foundering, then finds himself accused of murdering the captain, Bancroft (Robert Armstrong).

To help Mason's probe, investigator Paul Drake (William Hopper) makes a quick trip to Japan

Another Big Week Slated For Viewers

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Still another busy week looms in television, with 16 new shows moving onto network schedules.

Three new programs will be seen tonight. CBS' "Father of the Bride," a situation comedy with Leon Ames in the title role, will have its premier (9:30-10 EDT). ABC's new shoot-'em up, "Target: The Corruptors" follows (10-11). This conflicts with NBC's news commentary, "Here and Now" with Frank McGee presiding (10:30-11). In addition, there is "Robert Taylor's Detectives" moving to NBC—and lengthened to an hour (8:30-9:30).

CBS' "Gunsmoke" also will turn into an hour-long show when it returns Saturday night (10-11). So will NBC's "Tales of Wells Fargo" as it moves into position (7:30-8:30) against CBS' "Perry Mason," also having its season premiere.

Adlai E. Stevenson will start his ABC discussion series on ABC Sunday (3:30 p.m.) with Secretary of State Dean Rusk as his first guest. CBS will add "Mister Ed," a comedy series starring a talking horse, to its Sunday lineup (6:30-7 p.m.). ABC's "Bus Stop," an hour long drama series will also make its bow (9-10). CBS' Ed Sullivan Show (8-9) will resume with fresh shows and Durward Kirby will make his debut as host on "Candid Camera" (10-10:30). NBC's "Show of the Week" (10-11) is a study of Ernest Hemingway.

Robert Young's new series, "Window on Main Street" will have its CBS premiere Monday evening (8:30-9) and so will ABC's "Ben Casey," (10-11) a series about a pair of neurosurgeons.

Tuesday night marks the start of CBS' "The Dick Van Dyke Show," a situation comedy series (8-8:30); ABC's "Calvin and the Colonel" (8:30-9) an animated cartoon series with Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll of Amos 'n Andy fame, and ABC's "The New Breed," (9-10), a police-action series set in Los Angeles.

CBS' "The Alvin Show" starts Wednesday night (7:30-8) — Still another animated cartoon series. The Gertrude Berg-Sir Cedric Hardwicke comedy series, "Mrs. G. Goes to College" also has its adaptations from old movies, debuts on NBC (10-11) with the "Spiral Staircase," a thriller with a big-name cast.

On Thursday CBS' "Frontier Circus," a Western action series (7:30-8:30) starts, followed by "The Bob Cummings Show," comedy adventure series (8:30-9) and "The Investigators," about insurance frauds (9-10) on the same network.
